

THE PEACEMAKER STABBED.

SHENANDOAH, Penn., Oct. 31.—Last night Dominick Hope and Charles Dougherty, of Brownsville, quarreled while drinking in Mattoon's saloon, and Dougherty drew from his pocket a large dirkknife and threatened to pierce Hope with it. Pat Garvey, who had been associating with the men, interfered, when Dougherty turned upon the peacemaker, and plunged the knife into his left breast, penetrating his lung. The wound has been pronounced fatal. Dougherty has been arrested.

The New York Times

Published: November 1, 1884

Copyright © The New York Times